

Campfire Restriction Area in the Coastal Fire Center

Coastal Fire Center Wildlife Management Branch Ministry of Forest and Range

Legend

- Highways
- Coastal Fire Center
- Fog Belt (campfires permitted)
- Open Fire Restriction Area

30 15 0 30 60 90

Kilometers

Campfires are only permitted on the outer west coast of Vancouver Island, from the ocean to two kilometres inland of the high water mark from the community of Port Hardy north to Cape Scott and southward on the west coast of Vancouver Island to Owen Point near Port Renfrew.

This ban does not restrict fires in stoves using gas, propane, or birquettes.

This restriction does apply to open flame campfire apparatus (i.e. propane campfires, etc).