Campfires are only permitted in the following areas:

- North of a line drawn through:
  - Highway 28 (Gold River Highway on Vancouver Island), through Campbell River to Discovery Passage;
  - Through Discovery Passage, then between West Thurlow Island and East Thurlow Island;
  - Between the mainland and East Thurlow Island, Sonora Island and Stuart Island
  - Through Bute Inlet, then north to Majestic Peak.
- On Vancouver Island on the exposed outer west coast from the ocean to 2 km inland of the high water mark southward from Discovery Point at the mouth of Zuciarte Channel to Owen Point north of Port Renfrew.

This ban does not restrict fires in stoves using gas, propane, or briquettes.

This restriction does apply to open flame campfire apparatus (i.e. propane campfires, etc).
