The main map displays a detailed view of land parcels within the Cariboo-Chilcotin Natural Resource District. The map is overlaid with a coordinate grid ranging from 123°12'W to 123°58'30"W and 52°6'N to 52°12'N. Various land parcels are labeled with alphanumeric codes, such as R08879 50G, A93686 X30, R08994 10-A, and A96438. The map uses a color-coded system to represent different land ownership and management statuses, as defined in the legend. Key features include private land, Indian reserves, federal land, lease tenures, woodlots, community forests, first nation woodland licences, NSIQ lands, active harvest authorizations, pending areas, not free growing cutblocks, wildlife tree patches, growth and yield plots, research installations, conservation lands, active recreation areas, pending recreation areas, old growth management areas, priority deferral areas, interim decision aboriginal title areas, parks and protected areas, mule deer winter ranges, public roads, active road permits/FSRs, active recreation trails, and BCTS operating areas. The map also shows the Alex Fraser Research Forest and other features like mule deer winter ranges. A north arrow is located in the top left corner of the map area.
