Area summary shows sites PINS-001 and PINS-007 having no recent attack while site to the immediate north PINN-0021 had light recent attack. Site PINS-0002 is an isolated site and had moderate to heavy attack. It showed signs of both 2015 and 2016 attack and is near the boundary between Mackenzie and Northeast Districts/ It would benefit from treatment, either trap tree trail, which may be inefficient given the isolated status of the site, or fall and burn which may be up to 20 trees. Concentrated attack in center of probe and nothing noticed immediately to the outsides in the probe. Sites PINS-003-006 had access issues with rivers and distance.
