

Ministry of Forests

LAKES FOREST DISTRICT – CULTURAL HERITAGE RESOURCES

STANDARDS for FURTHER ACTION

NO BARK BEETLE INFESTATION

ACTION	CHR CATEGORY	CHR RATING	NOTES
No reconnaissance or AIA required.	AOA – potential for CMTs. AOA – potential for other resources. LARP – known resources.	Low or Moderate. No resources documented. No significant resources documented.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Harvest may occur. Licensee is responsible for ensuring the requirements of Section 51 of the Forest Practices Code of British Columbia Act, Previously unidentified resource features are met.
Licensee to complete field reconnaissance for CHRs.	AOA – potential for CMTs. AOA – potential for other resources. LARP – known resources.	Moderate to High. No resources documented. No significant resources documented.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reconnaissance may be completed by a person qualified through proven experience. The recce person is responsible for identifying, flagging and accurately mapping all CHRs they identify in the field. Reconnaissance may occur through the winter months, providing that snow conditions do not obscure the modification scar on CMTs. Reconnaissance information will be used in conjunction with CHR information to determine whether AIAs are required.
Archaeologist should complete an AIA.	AOA – potential for CMTs. AOA – potential for other resources. LARP – known resources.	High; or Moderate or Moderate to High; or Any significant CHRs identified.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A qualified archaeologist must complete an AIA. The AIA report and copies of information and photographs taken during fieldwork must be submitted to the Lakes Forest District.
CHR – cultural heritage resource CMT – culturally modified tree CHR – cultural heritage resource			AOA – archaeological overview assessment AIA – archaeological impact assessment LARP – Lakes' archaeological resource project

This document was created with Win2PDF available at <http://www.daneprairie.com>.
The unregistered version of Win2PDF is for evaluation or non-commercial use only.