RCMP raid second pot shop

Port Alberni RCMP arrested four Port Alberni residents at the Port Alberni Cannabis Club on Bute Street on Thursday, Sept. 22. This is the second search warrant the RCMP have executed at a marijuana dispensary in Port Alberni this month. West Side Alternatives on Athol Street was raided by RCMP on Sept. 16.

Five individuals were charged and are awaiting their December trial date.

On Sept. 22 at 2:30 p.m., members of the Port Alberni RCMP General Investigation Section entered The Cannabis Club under the authority of a search warrant issued by a provincial court judge. According to City of Port Alberni planner Scott Smith, the dispensary didn't have a licence.
