

PCMP 350 Competencies (Case Study)

- Planning and Communications (e.g. target audience, key objectives, message and methodology)
- Procurement policy and process
- Research of available procurement resource materials (e.g. educational materials, contracts, and policy information)

PCMP 350 Course Description (Case Study)

This is the final requirement for the Certificate in Procurement and Contract Management Program. Prior to attending the course, participants will receive and then prepare an omnibus case study.

Each case study will contain issues than span the eight program elements.